

PGA Golf Training & Tuition

Wellsgreen Golf Academy Standingstone Road Kirkcaldy KY8 5RU, Saturday 19 September @09:30

The SDGP will host its third PGA supervised golf training and tuition day of 2009, at the Wellsgreen Golf Academy on Saturday 19 September and anyone with a serious health issue, mobility problem or disability and their coaches may attend. To enter, please complete the entry form below and return with your entry fee to the address shown.

THE WELLSGREEN ENTRY FEE IS ONLY £10 PER PERSON, FOR JUNIORS, EXISTING PLAYERS, NOVICES, BEGINNERS AND THEIR COACHES!

Golf tuition will be provided by a team of PGA Professionals based at Wellsgreen and will commence at 09:30, with groups sessions and individual tuition running throughout the day. In addition to use of the practise facilities and tuition, light refreshments will also be provided for each entrant.

A few holes of golf on the “Wee Course” will be available for any beginners. There will also be a competition with prizes for those players able to compete on the par-3 course. There are excellent facilities at the Wellsgreen Academy, including the driving range, putting green, bunkers and the “Wee Course”, as well as a Restaurant and Pro-shop.

Your Name _____

Nature of disability _____

Coaches Name _____

Main contact (to be completed by non-members only)

Address _____

Post Code _____ Telephone _____ E-mail _____

Do you and/or your coach have any special diet? Yes No (please circle)

If yes, please give details _____

Please note, that at any SDGP golf event, all participants are responsible for their own existing medical conditions and actions, and no liability will be accepted by the SDGP or our event partners for any injury or damage to person or property. Personal injury cover is not retained and should be taken out separately if desired. All participants must inform the Committee, event organisers and their playing partners, of any medical condition which may interfere with play during an event. Participants with medication, which may need to be administered in an emergency, must inform these parties of its location and dosage.

The entry fee is only £10 per person attending. I/We enclose a cheque for £ _____ made payable to “Scottish Disability Golf Partnership”. Send your completed form and entry fee cheques, to 38 Crawley Crescent Springfield Cupar Fife KY15 5SF. Due to pre-booking catering and golf arrangements, entry fees are non-refundable.