Vets Jamboree at Seascale – May Hughes reported that the Scottish team consisted of Heather Anderson, Lorna Bennett, Fiona de Vries, Noreen Fenton, May Hughes, Anne Ryan, Mary Smith and Moira Thomson. Scotland were defending the Miller Stirling Salver and were hopeful of NOT winning the very handsome new runners up trophy, the Tony Moffat Quaich. The results of the matches were :-

Scotland 6 England South 3

Scotland 4.5 England Midlands 4.5

Scotland 6 England North 3

The Miller Stirling Trophy was retained by Scotland.

Scottish Vets v Irish Vets – This match had to be postponed as the volcanic ash from the Icelandic volcano eruption precluded any flights reaching Ireland, and was eventually rearranged after the air space was re-opened!

The team was Heather Anderson, Lorna Bennett, Helen Faulds, Noreen Fenton, Alex Glennie, Mary Smith, Kathleen Sutherland and Pamela Williamson. The match was won by the Irish by 6.5 -5.5.

The Captain then thanked Carol Fell for all her work on the website throughout the year.

Captain Helen then announced that the committee had been very pleased to agree to the conferring of Honorary membership of the West Vets on Wendy Cameron who has over many years given a huge amount to both the West and Scottish Vets and indeed Scottish ladies golf. Wendy Cameron was then presented with a scroll to mark the occasion.

ELECTION OF OFFICE BEARERS. The Captain thanked Janice Paterson, Moira Cameron and Maureen Mitchell who all retire from committee.

Fiona Roger was then presented with her Captain's badge and will hold the post for 2 years.

Sheila Shaw remains as Treasurer.

Ruth Henderson remains as Secretary.

Captain Fiona then thanked Past Captain Helen for all her work over the past 2 years.

She proposed Anna Telfer as her Vice Captain and this was seconded by Enid Young. Fiona indicated that it was the committee's intention to try to work with herself, Vice Captain, Past Captain, Treasurer, Secretary and Jinty Halley (ordinary member) for this year and to appoint 2 new members to the committee next year to replace the past captain and Jinty Halley who would both be retiring.

AOCB

Slipovers – The Captain reported that the quality of the slipovers was unsatisfactory and that she would look into the matter.

The secretary will send out to the members, with the fixture card, a slip requesting email addresses with a view to setting up an email mailing list to cut down the cost of postage.

The members were reminded of the Blairgowrie entry requirements.

The Captain raised the possibility of a knockout competition for those vets coming 8th - 16th in the championship qualifier in May. It was agreed that the committee will look into this.

Past Captain Helen was presented with a bouquet of flowers by captain Fiona.

After the presentation of the prizes May Hughes proposed a vote of thanks.
